

#noprecariouswork

Thursday afternoon to Friday lunchtime, 19th -20th of September 2019

Venue: Astoria Palace Hotel, level -2

Palermo, Italy

General frame of the event:

19th September, Thursday, 15:00 – 18:30

14:00 - 14:30	Welcome Aperitivo on the roof-top terrace of the Astoria Hotel
14:30 – 15:00	Arrival and registration	Contributors
15:00 – 18.30	Session 1 – The extent of precarious work
15:00-15:10	Opening and welcome	Romain Wolff, CESI President Leoluca Orlando, Mayor of Palermo Roberto Lagalla, former Rector University of Palermo / Regional Councilor for Education and Training
15:10-15:15	Introduction and main findings of the survey – background of the project	Raluca Radescu, CESI
15:15 – 16.30	State of play concerning precarious work in some EU countries	Inputs from Dolores Martínéz, SAE, Spain Bernd Sauer, dbb, Germany Luc Viehé, SPELC, France Paolo Coppola, Judge, Napoli Court, Italy Michele de Luca, Judge, High Court of Cassation, Italy
16:30 – 17:00	Coffee Break
17:00 – 17:15	Political responses to precarious work	Danilo Iervolino, President Pegaso University Carmelo Miceli, House of Representatives , Italy
17:15 – 17:45	National case law in some EU	Dr. Antonio Garcia-Munoz, European Centre of

‘Precarious work – empowering trade unions to address the new challenges’

	countries: What could be done for better enforcement?	Expertise in the field of Labour Law Employment and Labour Market Policies
17:45 – 18:30	Discussion and summary of the first session	Matthäus Fandrejewski, CESI Youth Representative

20th September, Friday, 09:45 – 13:15

09:30 – 09:45	Arrival and registration	Contributors
09:45 – 12:30	Session 2: Approaches and solutions
09:45 – 10:00	Opening and welcome	Michele Poerio, Secretary-General Confedir Franco Cavallaro, Secretary-General Cisl
10:00 – 12:30	Part 1: Effective interest representation, closing legislative loopholes, the principle of equal treatment and access to social rights and protection – a multi-sided approach	Prof. Dr. Monika Schlachter-Voll, Council of Europe
	Part 2: Best practices: Effective tools to fight precarious work and to ensure better enforcement of protective labor law	Nicola Zampieri, lawyer, Italy
	Part 3: How to act for a better enforcement of social rights at national level?	Marcello Pacifico, CESI Vice-President, ANIEF President
	Part 4: What is the role of information campaigns at national level? Some success stories	Sara Rinaudo, National Secretary Fismic, member of CESI-Youth Board
11:30 – 11:45	Coffee Break
11:45 – 12:30	How to ensure better access to	Sergio Galleano & Vincenzo de Michele, ANIEF Italy

‘Precarious work – empowering trade unions to address the new challenges’

	social rights? Effects of litigations and campaigns	Vytaute Valionyte, Justice for Temporary Workers, Lithuania
12:30 – 13:15	Discussion and conclusions of session 2 – Paving the way for the project implementation	Roberto di Maulo, CESI Vice-President

The event will be moderated by Pierre Baussand, Director of the Eurofound Office Brussels.

